

For Book Clubs reading Haunted Day and Night by Carrie Clock, below is a list of questions to help foster discussion.

1. What themes manifested in this novel?
2. Which character(s) or scene, if any, made you laugh, cry, fearful, anxious, or spawned any other emotion in you?
3. What scene, if any, would you change?
4. What did you like the best about the protagonist, Anastasia Day?
5. What did you like about Charlene and Natalia? What are your thoughts about Blake and Nate?
6. How are some characters similar and how are they different?
7. What character(s) could you identify with and why?
8. Which character(s), if any, frustrated you and why?
9. Name each female character and her experience of motherhood if any.
10. Do you think the book captured varying emotions surrounding motherhood?
11. Would you say Ana's "revenue revitalization plan" (renting rooms) was successful or dead?
12. Would you have helped Rebecca and Bella as Ana and her roommates did or done something different or nothing at all?
13. What messages do you think haunt women? Are the messages that haunt women today different than the 1800s? How so?
14. Did you learn something new about women's history, religion, relationships, or something else from the novel?
15. Have you ever fostered an animal (or human) or volunteered anywhere? Would you do so again?
16. The characters exhibit a variety of spiritual journeys or lack thereof. Which character's spiritual journey best replicates your own spiritual path?
17. What message or theme of the novel did you find meaningful and why?
18. Was there a part of the novel you found thought-provoking?
19. Did this novel make you want to explore the real City of York, Pennsylvania and/or another place discussed in the novel?
20. What scares you more: the living or the dead?
21. Have you ever experienced something supernatural or spooky?
22. Do you believe in ghosts or an afterlife of sorts?
23. Would you recommend this book? Why or why not?